Meet "Caesar" - Classic build, a sound and strong breeder, Caesar was born and raised in the Pacific Northwest pastures where our average rainfall is 35". He is a great example of the versatility and adaptability of the Dorper breed. I purchased Caesar from Frost King Dorpers as a 4 month old lamb. He has never been grained and easily maintains an average 275 pounds during the breeding season. Caesar's offspring are predominately twins and triplets. His 2015 triplet daughter, Brandwein Dorper 1561 (Evie), and his 2015 triplet son, Brandwein Dorper 1560 (Mordecai), are in the sale. Caesar's excellent bloodlines include Riverwood Farms, Ram H, Summa/Karoo and South African stock. Caesar will have Codon, OPP & Johnes results by show time.

Charlton Farms NW is a small acreage about 25 miles southwest of Portland, Oregon where we have lived for over 30 years and have been raising Dorpers since 2005. We really enjoy the breed and sell most of our lambs directly to customers who appreciate the superb taste. We have found that our customers are the best marketing tool and usually have our lambs spoken for as they are born. We breed for conformation and rapid growth although are mindful of the other standards that make the Dorper such an outstanding breed. We have an ongoing interest in developing our flock and we are proud of our progress. My granddaughter Violet is also active raising Dorpers and shows at the fair through 4-H yearly and is now working to develop the Youth program with the WSDA. She is also active in FFA and 4-H as well as the swim team, getting good grades and learning to drive. Since our yearling ram took 3rd place in last year's WSDA show/sale we have been watching our lambs closely and have selected three that we believe will be competitive for this year's show and sale.

Phil and Sharon Freilich have been involved with Dorper sheep for nearly 4 years. During that time we have purchased premium quality ewes from many of the established Dorper flocks from the Hill Country of Texas and quality flocks in the Western States. We are striving to continually improve the quality of our ewes in our breeding program.

Our flock is located in Briones, California on 65 acres of hilly coastal grasslands nestled in a small valley between Lafayette and Martinez.

We currently have 18 Dorper ewes between the ages of 1 and 3. We have one ram, Holman 4219, aka "Sparkplug" that we purchased in April, 2014, at the Mid-America Dorper Show in Duncan, OK. On the day, Sparkplug was the highest auctioned ram in an entry of over 300 Dorper/White Dorper sheep auctioned.

Our welcome mat is always out for visitors. Please call ahead and let us know when you would like to stop by.

Hello from the Rock N T Ranch. We have been raising Dorper sheep about 12 years and are proud members of the W.S.D.A. Our bloodlines include Karoo, Riverwood and recently we were able to purchase Australian bloodlines from Phillip Glass, Half Circle Six Ranch. JoJo Junior, Juke and a Maverick grandson fill our stable of stud rams. Our last crop of 38 lambs were born with one first time ewe needing assistance. The easy birth and quick growth is exactly what we had in mind when we were looking into new blood lines. Hope to see all of you at Chico. Email us and we will send you pictures of our entries.

Sierra Ridge Ranch got its start in 2011 in the foothills of the Sacramento Valley. We are a small, family run ranch on primarily irrigated pasture. We fell in love with the Dorper breed for their meat producing abilities, reproductive abilities, and their relative ease of care. We primarily raise breeding stock and are constantly educating ourselves so that we can continue to better our flock in a variety of ways. We are committed to producing healthy, high quality animals that can be used for breeding stock or meat purposes.

We purchased our first RR ram from Riverwood Farms in 2013 (he was Reserve Grand Champion at the Nugget Show) and started raising QR and RR lambs. In 2013 we also purchased a ram from Lazy J Ranch (who is QR) and between the two they sire all of our stock. We will continue to grow and better our breeding program so that we produce quality Dorpers.

Glenn Land Dorpers began in 2000 with a few White Dorper x St. Croix ewes and has expanded to a flock of 400 Purebred White Dorper ewes whose offspring have found numerous markets throughout the country. The market lambs finish on irrigated pasture and are purchased for farmer's markets, upscale restaurants and ethnic consumers. The breeding ewes and rams are sold at the ranch, at the Mid-America Sale in Oklahoma, at the Western States Dorper Sale in California and most recently a shipment of ewes were exported to the Philippines. Many of the sheep sold at the ranch are purchased by buyers in the Midwest and even the East Coast. We strive to produce sheep that work hard, so you don't have to. In addition to the White Dorper flock, we have recently started a small flock of Dorpers in order to satisfy the needs of more of the prospective buyers that contact us.

Willow Creek Ranch raises registered White Dorper sheep. We are located in Northern California in Fairfield along Interstate 80, 60 miles east of San Francisco and 60 miles north of Sacramento. We are very excited about our White Dorpers. They are very adaptable and thrive on eating many varieties of different vegetation. They are hardy, muscular in size and very attuned to people and easy to work with. The fast growth rate is huge. Our ranch consists of acres of cross fenced lush irrigated pasture. We strive to keep the quality of our breed at the highest level to maintain customer confidence and demand. Our flock is marketed for meat, breeding and show stock.
